Foreword

This 1959 edition of the INDIAN has been published with but one objective: to depict everyday activities in our new school. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

Since this was the first year in our new school, we have tried to emphasize the beautiful buildings throughout the book. The buildings and campus play a big part in school life.

There are those without whose efforts this book would not have been possible and to whom we would like to express our appreciation: Mrs. Mosley, our sponsor; Mark Foster, our photographer; Tom Holley, our representative from Taylor Publishing Company; Deck Peacock, designer of the art work; and the merchants for their advertisements. They have all contributed to the publication of the '59 INDIAN.

Our Board of Education

Dedication

We, representing the student body, dedicate the 1959 INDIAN to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mosley.

As long as they have taught here, Mr. and Mrs. Mosley have stood out in the minds of the students, not only as friends, but also as willing advisers.

In appreciation for all they have done for us, we dedicate this annual to them.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Our New School

The function of the school board is to make policies which govern the school. Their duties include approval of all school personnel and budgets, and authorization of the construction of necessary buildings.

These men work without pay. Therefore, we are greatly indebted to them for their services.

We Present the New

*We salute you, Jacksonville High!
New and brave and proud you stand.
Our dreams, our hopes, within you
lie,
Our love, our faith—at your command.
Your blue and gold shall brighter
grow,
In strength and beauty wave.
Honor to you we do bestow
And on our hearts engrave.*

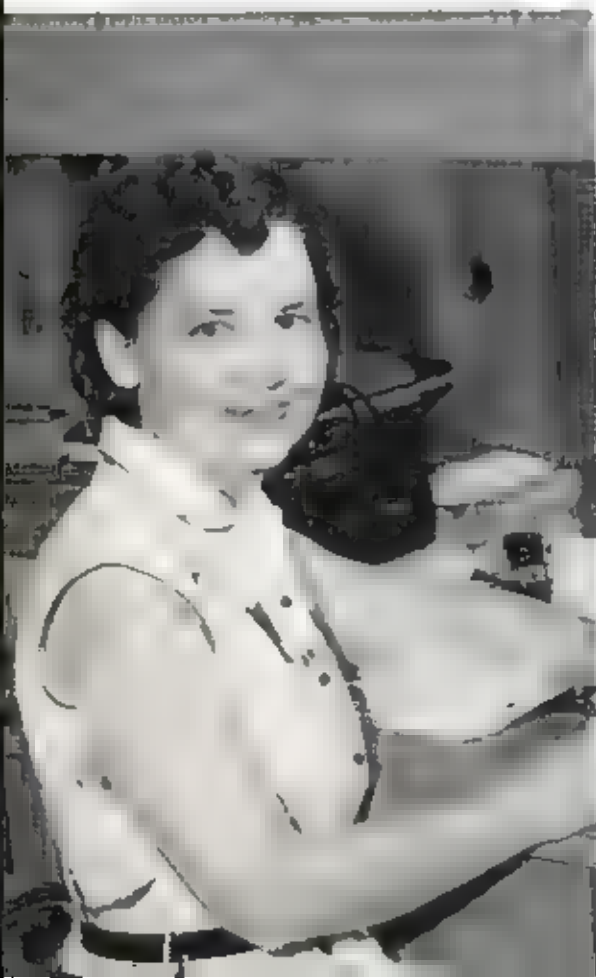

By MRS. F. L. HABERLE

Superintendent of Jacksonville Public Schools

MR. W. D. MAULDIN

Mr. Mauldin has spent many months planning and supervising the construction of the new plant. He has been the driving force behind other expansions in the facilities of Jacksonville schools. At J.H.S. Mr. Mauldin has always been sincerely interested in the students.

Mrs. Rayford Milstead is secretary to Mr. Mauldin and bookkeeper for the Jacksonville Independent School District.

Mrs. Edith Goodson is also a secretary to Mr. Mauldin.

Principal of Jacksonville Senior High

DR. T. P. JONES

As principal of Jacksonville Senior High School, Dr. Jones worked hand in hand with Mr. Mauldin and the school board in supervising the construction of our new school. He has always been co-operative with the student body in planning school activities. The students appreciate his willingness to help them.

Mrs. J. M. Toland, the amiable and co-operative registrar, is ever ready to help and assist faculty and students. She serves Dr. Jones as secretary.

Mr. Roy Hanna is our counsellor. He has charge of tickets for all athletic contests. His degrees are B.A. and M.A. from Stephen F. Austin.

Mrs. C. P. Mosley teaches Art I and II. She is the sponsor for the annual. She is shown below with Marcus Wink, Photographer; Alice Burrill, Editor; Lincoln Barber, Business Manager, and Deck Peacock, Artist for the annual.

The Seniors Are Presented

The Senior Favorites, Mr. and Miss J.H.S., and Most Beautiful and Most Handsome nominees lend excitement and suspense to the year. They are pictured in the SENIOR SECTION which follows. The Senior class selects its Favorites from among its members. The nominees for Mr. and Miss J.H.S. are nominated from the Senior class and elected by the student body. The Most Beautiful and Most Handsome nominees are also selected from the Senior class, but the winners are the result of the judging of Miss Gussie Nell Davis, Director of the Kilgore Junior College Rangerettes and two of the Rangerettes. All Favorites and nominees are presented at the Fall Fashion Show.

To serve you as your President has been the greatest honor and privilege I shall ever hope to have. You have brought me a great deal of pleasure and an even greater reward by electing me your President — Thank you so much.

Your Student Council's most prominent goal is service to you and your school. Our projects and activities are the only way we could have been successful. We hope we were successful. Better citizenship is our main objective — there success can only be determined by you. America's citizens of tomorrow. Prove us successful by proving yourselves to be good citizens.

Who's Who

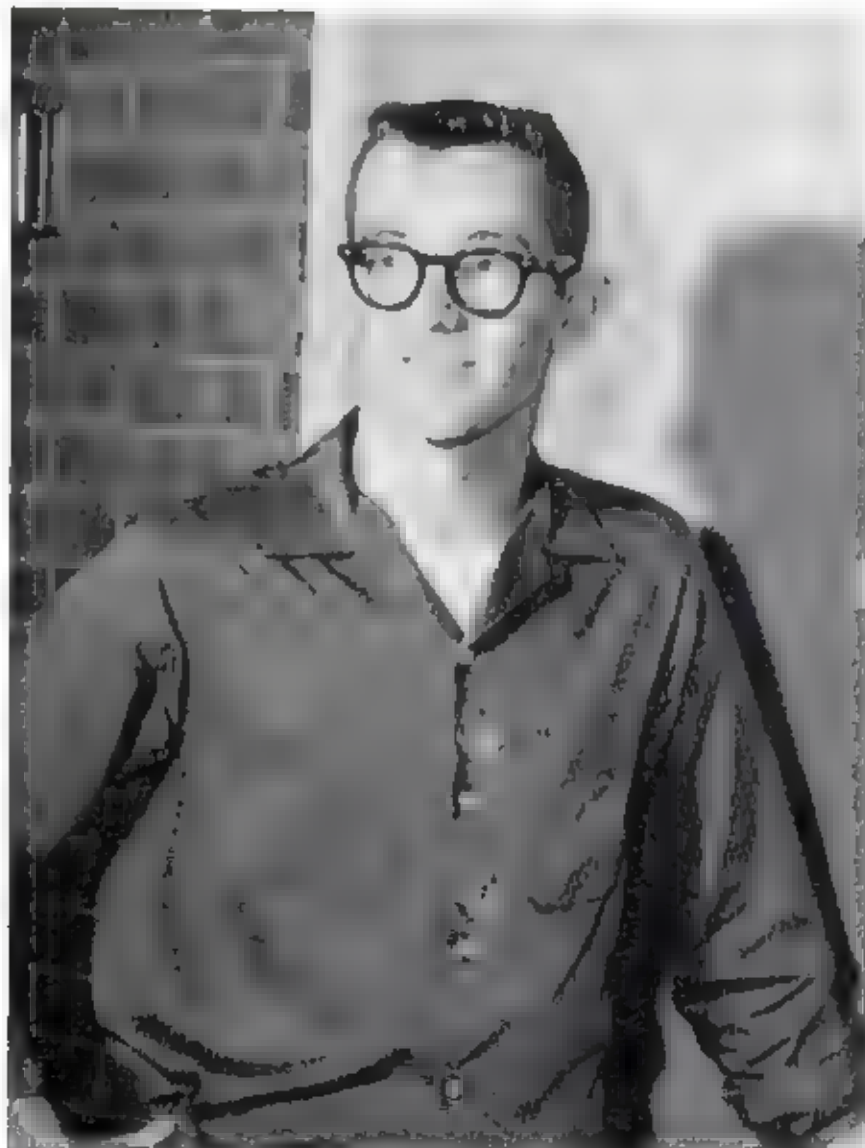

"Who's Who" is made up of one student selected from each department of the school. They are chosen by the teachers of those departments.

Due consideration is given to scholarship and to each of the following qualities: school spirit, courtesy, honesty, dependability, leadership, cooperativeness, conduct, and other qualities so necessary to the character of a good student.

The annual staff is happy to name these students as its "Who's Who."

A tense moment on the sidelines as the boys await the decision of the referees!

The Indian Tri-Captains this year are Deck Peacock, Halfback; Larry Garner, Center; and Danny Busby, Fullback. These boys proved their outstanding ability as they led the '58 Indian team. Their formula for winning football is simple hard work, supreme conditioning, and steady, sound football built around power and teamwork.

Coach C. O. Permenter talks it over with the spark plugs of the team, Captains R. S. Dyess, Dexter Bloodworth, and Danny Busby. These three Senior boys led the 1959 Indian team to numerous victories with Danny as top scorer in the district. Although this was his first year with the Indians, Coach Permenter proved his capability as a fine coach.

Assemblies Provide Enjoyment

or All

Manda B.

The ACTIVITIES of '58-'59 which follow will long be remembered by all students of J.H.S. The first year in a new school provides many "firsts" in school activities, as well as regular assemblies and programs in the beautiful auditorium and pep-rallies in the wonderfully equipped gymnasium.

Students Begin Classes in the New

Locker Room Mass

Lost Freshman

The '58 and 59 school year began at the new million dollar Jacksonville High School. Registration found everyone anxiously awaiting school in the new building. The first day was something. Seniors as well as Freshmen were lost. The faculty and students soon became adjusted and a new J.H.S. spirit was born. Adding to the first of the year excitement was the arrival of Senior rings. This year's senior class was to be the first graduating group from the new building.

Football Fev

The '58 football season began with high spirits and hopes of victory for the year, as the school participated in the first pep rally. The band under the direction of our band director, Mr. Briggs, sounded off loud and clear as the pep rally progressed. The cheerleaders lead the student body in yells. Peggy Buckley and Greg Henslee were chosen Mr. and Miss Color of J.H.S. They later led the color parade.

Color week was climaxed by the crowning of the 1958 J.H.S. Football Sweetheart, elected by the team members. Miss Ann Lowery was chosen and presented at half time festivities. Other nominees were Mary Faulk, a Sophomore, and Linda Hudson, a Senior. The football team played tirelessly during the entire season. They certainly kept the school spirit high during the fall.

Style Show and

Pam, Mistress of Ceremonies

One of the highlights of the year, the style show and judging of Most Beautiful and Most Handsome Nominees was presented through the combined efforts of the Curtain Club and the Annual Staff. Pam Small, President of the Curtain Club, served as Mistress of Ceremonies for the event. Dresses from school to party were shown by student models. As an extra feature gowns worn by the former Jacksonville Rose Festival Duchesses were shown. Barbara Williams and Jerry Chancellor were Most Beautiful and Most Handsome. Marilyn Mauldin and Charles Baker were announced Mr. and Miss J.H.S. climaxing the review and show. Director of the fashion show was Mr. James Everett and coordinator for the judging of the beauty nominees was Mrs. C. P. Mosely.

The civics class was in deep debate in their successful trial in may. Lucky Marianna was proven innocent! Sissy Phillips is shown above as she is sworn in by Wanda Johnson

Mary Faulk and Marilyn Hedricks anxiously await the decision of the judge at the Biology Fair.

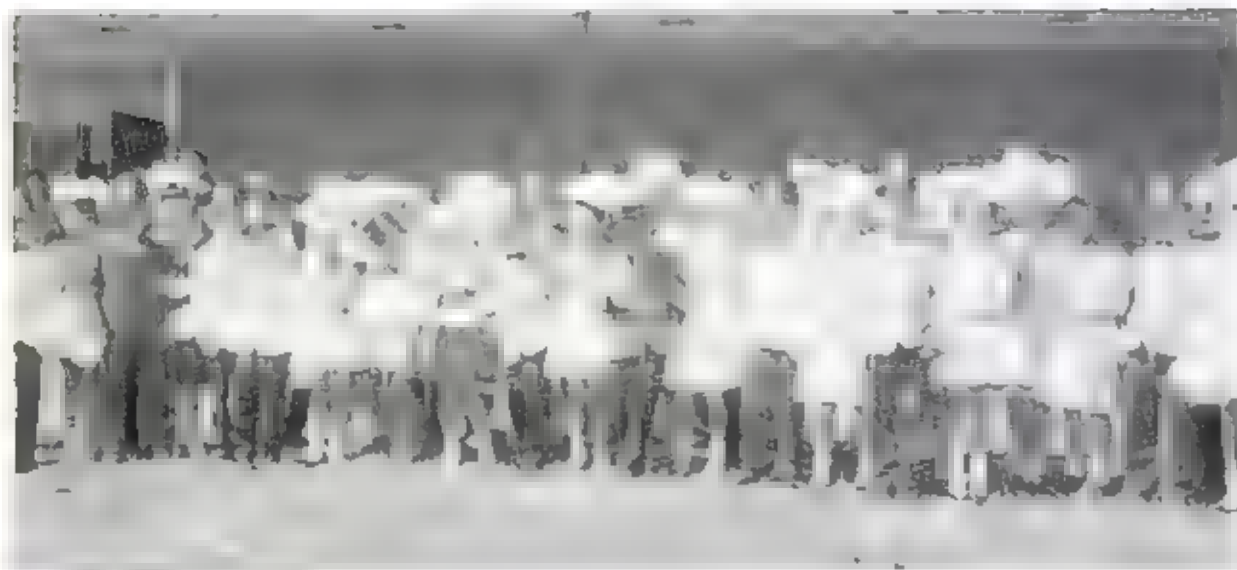

Unforgettable Memories

Assemblies

Assemblies are always welcomed by the students. In the upper left picture, the chemistry class is shown during their program. In the upper right picture the Spanish club poses after its assembly. For the second consecutive year, the INDIAN has won first place at Journalism Day, Baylor University. Alice Burrill, Linda Hudson, and Marianna Haberle are shown to the right placing the trophy in the case.

In May, the third year homemaking girls were the guests of the United Gas Company in Shreveport. The girls visited four beautiful, modern kitchens, and then were served a wonderful chicken dinner. Charlotte Foster and Joyce Wilson are shown above in the Kitchen for Gracious Living.

Grady Rountree and Neil Dark are shown to the right on the campus of Southern Methodist University where they represented the track team at the Regional Meet. Coach Dean worked with about twenty-five boys this spring.

Senior Day

Fun for all was the order of the day on Senior Day at Tyler State Park. Food fit for kings was enjoyed by all, as well as dancing, boating, skiing, swimming, and miniature golf. Jerry Norvell is seen at the right preparing to devour his lunch.

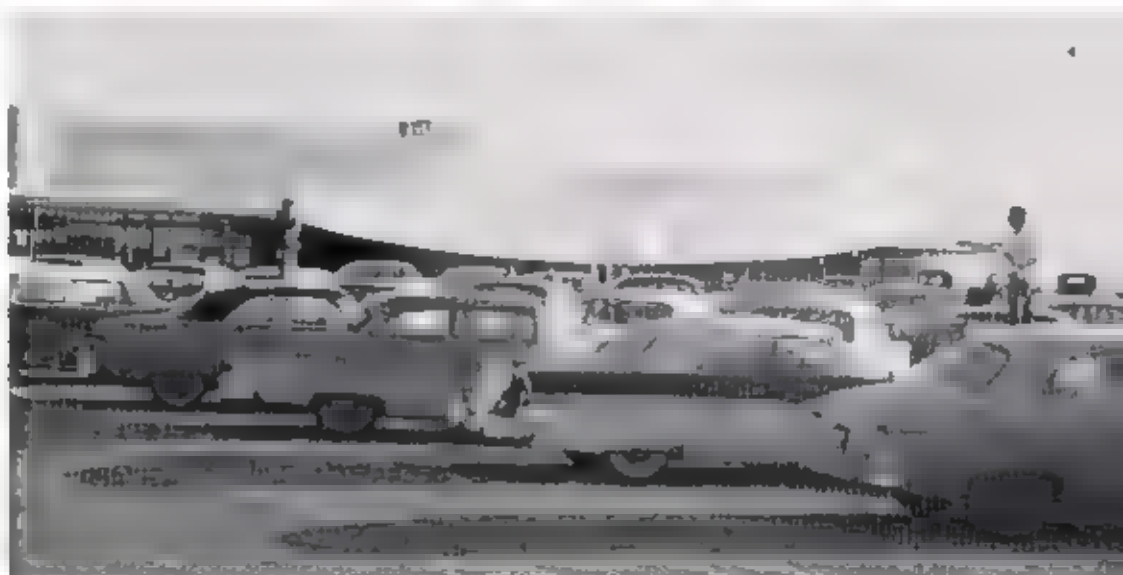

Everyone enjoyed the beautiful lake. While some skied, others rode in boats, and the more energetic ones chose paddle boats which ran on man power alone.

Although the weather was rather cool, swimming also was popular that afternoon.

Rewarded for all their hard work, Tim Murphy and Fran Bearden are declared the new President and Vice-President of J.H.S.

Annual Party

The theme of the Annual Party was Gay Nineties. Over thirty students were on the program. Shown on this page are the Waltzers, Little Girls, Lincoln Barber, the Trio, Quartet, and the crowd receiving their 1959 INDIANS. Not pictured were the By the Sea cast, the Cakewalk dancers, and JoAnn Adams of Marshall, Texas. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria after the program while everyone signed annuals.

Junior-Senior Banquet and Western Party

Dinner by candlelight added to the excitement of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Juniors and their mothers began changing the cafeteria into a beautiful Japanese Garden.

Couples danced to the music provided by the Lin-Aus of Tyler

"And the rains came down," would have made a fitting theme for the 1959 Junior-Senior Banquet. Although Old Man Weather caused havoc, the juniors made up for the rain with their lovely Japanese Teahouse, marvelous food, and wonderful entertainment.

The Western Party, sponsored by the F.H.A., featured a very modern theme. The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the 1959-1960 cheerleaders, who were elected by the student body.

Dancing at the Western Party followed the program.
